In the event that an independent director resigns or is dismissed and there is no other independent director to fill the vacancy, WNC may designate a person who is not qualified as an independent director to be the replacement of the Committee member until an independent director is elected, who will then be appointed as a member of the Committee.

When there is any appointment or change of any member of the Committee, WNC shall release a public announcement thereof on the public website designated by the relevant competent authority within two days from the event’s date of occurrence.

The Committee shall exercise the due care of a good manager and a fiduciary in performing the responsibilities and duties listed below and shall submit its recommendations for deliberation by the Board of Directors:

1. Prescribe and periodically review the performance review and remuneration policy, system, standards, and structure for directors and managerial officers.
2. Periodically evaluate and prescribe the remuneration of directors and managerial officers.

When performing the responsibilities and duties of the preceding paragraphs, the Committee shall follow the principles listed below:

1. 2. It shall not produce an incentive for the directors or managerial officers to engage in activity to pursue remuneration that exceeds the risks that WNC shall bear.
3. It shall take into consideration the characteristics of the industry and the nature of WNC's business when determining the ratio of bonus payout based on the short-term performance of its directors and senior management and the time for payment of the variable part of remuneration.

“Remuneration” as used in the preceding two paragraphs includes cash compensation, stock options, profit sharing and stock ownership, retirement benefits or severance pay, allowances or stipends of any kind, and other substantive incentive measures. Its scope shall be consistent with that of remuneration for directors and managerial officers as set out in the Regulations Governing Information to be published in Annual Reports of Public Companies.

When deliberating the recommendations of the Committee, the Board of Directors shall comprehensively consider matters including amounts of remuneration, payment methods, and WNC's future risk.

If the Board of Directors declines to adopt or decides to modify a recommendation of the Committee, it shall require the consent of a majority of the directors in attendance at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the entire board, which in its resolution shall give the comprehensive consideration under the preceding paragraph and shall specifically explain whether the remuneration passed by it exceeds in any way the recommendation of the Committee.

If the remuneration passed by the Board of Directors exceeds the recommendation of the Committee, the circumstances and cause for the difference shall be specified in the board meeting minutes and shall be publicly announced and reported on the information reporting website designated by the competent authority within two days counting from the date of passage by the Board of Directors.

If decision-making and handling of any matter relating to the remuneration of directors and managerial officers of a subsidiary are delegated to the subsidiary but require ratification by the Board of Directors of the parent company, the parent company's compensation committee shall be asked to make recommendations before the matter is submitted to the Board of Directors for deliberation.

The Committee shall convene at least twice a year, and this requirement shall be expressly included in the Charter.

Each Committee member shall be notified of the reasons for convening a Committee meeting at least

If there is no other independent director on the Committee, another member will be elected by and from the other members of the Committee.

The Committee shall invite the Chairman of the Board or the CEO to attend meetings as a nonvoting participant. The results of voting shall be made known immediately and recorded in writing.

A member serving as proxy under paragraph 3 may accept an appointment as a proxy from one other Committee member only.

Article 8-1

When a meeting of the remuneration committee will discuss the remuneration of any member of the remuneration committee, it will be clearly stated at the meeting.
